

Emerging Drivers for Cleantech: An EPA—University and Entrepreneur Roundtable

October 26, 2009
10 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. CDT

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency – Chicago
77 West Jackson Boulevard, 12th floor, Lake Michigan Room or via webinar

Web Seminar at <http://www.clu-in.org/studio/cleantech2/>
Conference Call-in #1-866-299-3188, access code 312-353-1080#

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 10:00 – 10:15 | Opening and Introductions
Walter W. Kovalick Jr. , Acting Deputy Regional Administrator |
| 10:15 – 10:35 | EPA's Role in Fostering Technology |
| 10:35 – 11:10 | Discussion of EPA's Assets for Technology Developers and Entrepreneurs <ul style="list-style-type: none">• April Richards: EPA's Small Business Innovative Research (SBIR) Program: Special Opportunity to Leverage Natl Science Foundation SBIR funding, December 2009• Valerie Blank: Partnering with EPA for Technology Development: Cooperative Research and Development Agreements (CRADA's)• Maggie Theroux: Environmental Technology Verification (ETV) Program: EPA Verification of Technology Performance• Alan Walts: Supplemental Environmental Projects (SEPs): Opportunities to deploy Novel Technologies through EPA Enforcement |
| 11:10-11:30 | Emerging Environmental Challenges: Signals for the Cleantech Marketplace <ul style="list-style-type: none">• EPA Regional Technology Needs• General Services Administration Technology Development Needs• EPA Semi-Annual Regulatory Agenda |
| 11:30-12:00 | Initial Responses to EPA Information related to Demand for Cleantech <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Allen J. Dines: President, Midwest Research University Network and Asst. Dir., Office of Corp. Relations, Univ. of WI-Madison• Dr. Kathy Banks: Bowen Engineering Head and Professor of Civil Engineering, Purdue University• Jeffery Perl: President, Chicago Chem Consultants Corp. |
| 12:00-12:30 | Roundtable/Across Web Discussion of On-Going Dialogue with EPA about Cleantech |